

A QUICK WORD ABOUT SOJU

Soju is a Korean spirit distilled from rice and barley and is the most commonly produced alcoholic beverage worldwide. Napa Valley Bistro carries 3 types of soju. Soju 48 is a neutral spirit with a flavor profile similar to vodka. Soju TEQ is infused with the flavors of premium Mexican Tequila. Soju Cane is a Caribbean Rum-inspired spirit. We are proud to serve high quality, low alcohol cocktails to our patrons who prefer an alternative to wine or beer.
